Global Investment Bank selects SPG Managed Services to Outsource Talent Acquisition & Management for Records & Information

(NEW YORK, NY – September 2, 2010) SPG Managed Services, the Talent Acquisition and Workforce Management Services Division of the Solomon Page Group, LLC announced today that it had been selected by one of the worlds leading Investment Banks to manage the recruitment, selection, engagement, employment and management of professionals providing Records Retention and Information Management Services to the bank.

Ron LeVan, Managing Director said, “We’re honored to have been selected among the competitors who have had extensive experience in Records Management. I believe we were selected because the bank valued our exceptional recruitment capabilities and our demonstrated commitment to professional development, people management and partnership philosophy. Given their past experience, I think the firm recognized how important local management and relationships are to a successful working partnership.”
